The George Washington meet opens a heavy indoor track season for the Virginia requad. The Johns Hopkins meet on the following Saturday has been practically given up. So has the relay meet in Boston on February lo. The latter was canceled partly to allow the full team to take part in the Washington meet, and partly because of unsatisfactory arrangements on such a long trip. The next meet will be two weeks from Saturday, in Richmond, and following this event, on March 4, is the Georgetown indoor meet with Virginia's old rival in Washington.

This information has been communicated to President Jere Bunting, of the local association, by the commission. It has been decided the commission. It has been decided that Ryan is the property of the Chillicothe, O., team. It appears that Ryan wanted to come to Bristol, and that he had wired President Bunting his acceptance of the proposition made him to come here. But the contract blank was slow in reaching the Roanoker, and he having received such a blank from Chillicothe, signed a contract to go with that team, in advance of further information from Bristol.

President Bunting is now in receipt of communications from a number of men who are anxious to secure the position of manager here, but the matter has not yet been decided.

bistoric building at Fassifern Farm, eight miles from itot Springs, was totally destroyed by fire to-day. For years the farm has been only of the chief attractions for the visitors here can always a fine specimen of the day of the compact to enjoy the old Virginia dinners for which Fassifern is famed. The main building was built in 1731 and was a fine specimen of the old colonial style of architecture. In the yard meaning was a small building, which was also destroyed and which was the first county clerk's office in Bath county.

The property originally belonged to the Cameron estate, but passed into the hands of Tate Sterrett about ten years ago. Mr. Sterrett had quite a collection of antique furniture at the time of the purchase, and has been adding to this from time to time. This is included in the loss. The property loss is about $50,000, and the insurance is about $50,000.
